Highland Today - Largest and Fastest - Growing Town in State

.....A TOWN OF BEAUTIFUL CHURCHES, SUBSTANTIAL HOMES AND FINE SCHOOLS, WITH A SENSE OF CIVIC PRIDE AMONG ITS CITIZENRY THAT BEARS AN ENVIABLE REPUTATION THROUGHOUT THE CALUMET AREA;

.....A TOWN WHERE STRANGERS QUICKLY BECOME ACQUAINTANCES AND NEIGHBORS CLOSE FRIENDS, WHERE THERE IS NO CLASS DISTINCTION AND ALL HAVE AN EQUAL VOICE, BECAUSE IT MATTERS HERE NOT SO MUCH WHO A MAN IS, AS WHAT HIS PRINCIPLES ARE;

.....A TOWN WHERE SALESPEOPLE AND MERCHANTS ALWAYS FIND THE TIME FOR A PLEASANT GREETING AND A KIND WORD, UPHOLDING THE SPIRIT OF "THE FRIENDLY SHOPPING CENTER.".....WHOSE TOWN BOARD IGNORES POLITICAL DIFFERENCES IN A UNITED EFFORT FOR A BETTER HIGHLAND;

.....A TOWN OF GENTLE PEOPLE WITH HIGH IDEALS, RECOGNIZED AS A STRONGHOLD OF CHRISTIANITY, COMPOSED BASICALLY OF CHURCH-GOING FOLKS WHO, FOR THE MOST PART, SEEK FRIENDS AND SOCIAL LIFE THROUGH THEIR BELOVED CHURCHES, NOW NUMBERING CLOSE TO A DOZEN; A TOWN OF HIGH INTELLECTUAL STANDARDS WHOSE SCHOOL SYSTEM IS BECOMING A STATE CRITERION;

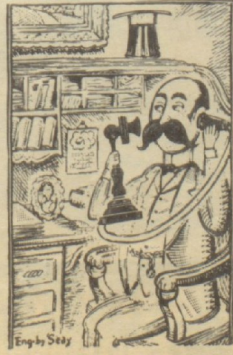

.....A TOWN WHERE PATRIOTISM RUNS FAST THROUGH THE VEINS OF ITS PEOPLE, WHETHER IT BE A NATIONAL CRISIS OR A SCHOOL BASKETBALL GAME....THE SCHOOL WITH THE 100% PTA MEMBERSHIP WHERE PARENTS REALIZE THAT IDEALS REQUIRE ACTION....THE TOWN WHERE LAW AND ORDER IS RESPECTED AND STRIVED FOR; A TOWN WHOSE HIGH SCHOOL HAS ONE OF THE STRICTEST CODES OF DRESS AND BEHAVIOR IN THE STATE....WHERE A PERSON IS PROUD TO BE DECENT AND EXPECTS THE SAME OF HIS NEIGHBOR;

SERVING HIGHLAND

About 1919 Highland Lumber Company had its beginning in the yard of Gerrit Postema at Highway Avenue and Johnston Street. Pictured is Henry Postema, now in Arizona.

Highland Lumber Company's first office at Jewett and Fourth Streets about 1920. Already the young company was dealing in lumber, gravel, lime, wood building materials, coal, cement, blocks, roofing, paints and varnishes.

Gerrit Postema, former co-owner is shown standing near the lumber storage building which looked like this about 1920.

"Service with Quality Materials" has always been a by-word with us. Here is Highland Lumber Company's first truck about 1920.

NEW CONCEPT

Restaurant Dining at San Remo

With the introduction of a new dimension in food service and a supporting promotional program, patronage at San Remo Restaurant and Lounge has steadily — almost spectacularly — since January, 1958.

Innovations included a unique custom-designed food server named the "Festa Cart," and a Salad Bar.

causes and projects which were at the same time newsworthy and in the public interest.

Len Blair and Al Sweet have pioneered in the field of restaurant education. They have helped to arrange a Food Service Development Program offered jointly by Indiana University and the Indiana Restaurant Association.

Sam Remo has five dining rooms and there are facilities to accommodate private parties, weddings, banquets, meetings and the like.

Dinner music by Hyman Manalan, violinist, and Mabel Orr, organist, is featured in the main dining room. Marge Weaver plays at the Piano Bar in the lounge.

San Remo is open 365 days a year. The hours are 4:30 'til closing on Monday through Saturday and 12:00 Noon to 8:00 on Sunday and most holidays.

The upturn in operations of hosts Len Blair and Al Sweet can be attributed to enthusiastic public acceptance of product, plus a vigorously pursued public relations program. Management has tried to conceive of public relations in a broad sense — something more than "gimmicks" and display advertising, although, of course, these are part of the picture.

As part of an expanding concept of the role of public relations in the development of a restaurant business, the partners have promoted worthwhile

San Remo is located at 3904 Ridge Road in Highland. There are three large parking lots. Telephone numbers are TURNER 6-1611 and TEmple 8-6000.

HIGHLAND'S FIRST SETTLERS

Michael and Judith Johnston

THE FIRST WHITE SETTLERS IN WHAT IS NOW HIGHLAND ARRIVED AND SETTLED HERE IN 1848. THEY WERE MICHAEL AND JUDITH JOHNSTON, WHO WERE EN ROUTE FROM OHIO TO ILLINOIS, WHERE MRS. JOHNSTON WAS TO TEACH SCHOOL. HOWEVER, THEY WERE SO ATTRACTED TO THIS AREA, THE CALUMET BEACH TRAIL, THAT THEY CHANGED THEIR PLANS AND MADE THE DECISION TO SETTLE HERE.

THE FIRST HOME IN TOWN WAS THE LOG CABIN WHICH THEY ERECTED AT A SELECT POINT ON THE RIDGE, AT WHAT IS NOW GRACE STREET.

AS OTHER SETTLERS ARRIVED, MRS. JOHNSTON SAW THE NEED FOR A SCHOOL, AND ORGANIZED AND HELD THE FIRST SCHOOL IN HER HOME.

HIGHLAND'S LARGEST PUBLIC ELEMENTARY SCHOOL IS NAMED IN HER HONOR, THE JUDITH MORTON JOHNSTON SCHOOL, WHICH WAS BUILT IN 1955.

Way Back When

Somewhere near 1910 Highland's First Band Those were the days of little amusement and fun, even for the young folks of school age. Always labor and toil from early morning until late at night. Weeding and hand cultivating all summer long. No hard surfaced roads and no facilities like electricity, gas and running water. Yet being deprived of these High. may boast of having had a band at that time. One evening a week this group of young men met in the old Christian School building (see last week's photo) with kerosene lamps to provide light and practiced and practiced until they had a band started. True, we had no drums as yet, but were bold enough to appear in public occasionally and entertain people. Think of this group one day getting set for an outing to Miller's Beach east of Gary. The Schoon boys hitched up the team onto a good hay rack. Music stands and chairs were set upon the rack and off we went. We roused the people in Gary out of their homes on Broadway and every one wondered with amazement where this band came from for this rustic band organization which played marches, hymns and a variety of instrumental music.

Yes, pictures tell the story. Here is evidence that these young men had enough tenacity to get together after a hard day's labor to meet and study music in a small room in Highland, 1910.

HOW HIGHLAND GOT ITS PRINT SHOP & WEEKLY

In 1948 Wayne Kletzing, publisher of The Highlander and owner of Calumet Press, envisioned Highland's great future as he commuted daily between his printing business in Griffith and residence in Munster. Selling both pieces of real estate, the Kletzing's "put all their eggs in one basket" and moved to Highland, opening the print shop at its present address. Accent was in job printing for many years.

Urged and encouraged by Highland folks who wanted a local weekly, THE HIGHLANDER was conveyed, and the first issue published on January 19, 1959. In March, 1959, the "new baby" arrived, the big Harris Offset newspaper press. Aided by a staff of loyal workers hard to match anywhere, THE HIGHLANDER has steadily progressed. Acceptance of the weekly by the people of Highland has exceeded even fondest expectations —

Plucked From the Vine,
Just Hours Ago . . .

Kroger goes to the sunniest vineyards,
where the grapes grow plump and sweet.
Each frosty-green bunch is tenderly plucked from the vine, so as not to bruise
a single grape. You'll find these seedless beauties at Kroger now . . . ripe and ready for your fruit bowl.

HIGHLAND FIRST KNOWN AS CLOUGH STATION

TOWN HALL

WATER TO THE NORTH

CHURCH

CLOUGH STATION WAS THE NAME BY WHICH HIGHLAND WAS KNOWN UNTIL 1883, WHEN IT WAS CHANGED TO HIGHLANDS BY RAILROAD SURVEYORS, THIS BEING THE ONLY HIGH GROUND IN THE AREA.

THE RIDGE WAS FLANKED ON BOTH THE NORTH AND SOUTH BY WATER, WITH LAKE MICHIGAN LESS THAN A 1/2 MILE ON THE NORTH. SOUTHWARD FROM RIDGE TO THE OLD LINCOLN HIGHWAY WAS 15 TO 20 FEET OF WATER.

HIGHLAND, WITH THE "S" NOW DROPPED, OFFICIALLY BECAME A TOWN ON APRIL 4, 1910 FOLLOWING PROCEED-INGS WHICH HAD BEEN ORIGINATED BY ANDREW L. REINER, WHO CIRCULATED A PETITION FOR INCORPORATION. THE INCORPORATION ISSUE WAS WON BY A VOTE OF 92-1.

CHAIRMAN OF THE FIRST BOARD OF TRUSTEES WAS CHARLES WIRTH. THE FIRST TOWN BOARD MEETING TOOK PLACE IN THE OFFICE OF THE LIBBY PICKLE FACTORY.

HIGHLAND'S FIRST MARSHALL, GEORGE STONEBRAKER, AS THE STORY IS TOLD, WAS QUITE STRICT IN ENFORCING THE TOWN'S SPEED LIMIT, WHICH IN 1910 WAS 8 MILES PER HOUR.
